Annual Conference

 19th - 20th June 2025

 Heathrow

Welcome
Karen Clayton, Chair
Macmillan Lung Cancer Lead CNS,
East Cheshire NHS Trust, Macclesfield

Check in to sessions in this room

- We want to see what sessions are most popular and learn from you to help us prepare for next year; that's why we are asking you to 'check in' to sessions in this room
- It's easy to do, simply scan the QR code and begin typing your name. Chose your name and hit 'check in'
- It would be helpful to those sponsoring satellite symposia if you are able to 'check in' to their sessions – this allows them to receive limited information (name, town, role) for ABPI compliance

Thank you to our corporate sponsors

2025

Johnson & Johnson

We are grateful to our corporate supporters for their financial support which supports the core activities of the organisation and allows us to make services either freely available or at greatly reduced rates to its members.

A huge thank you to the Committee

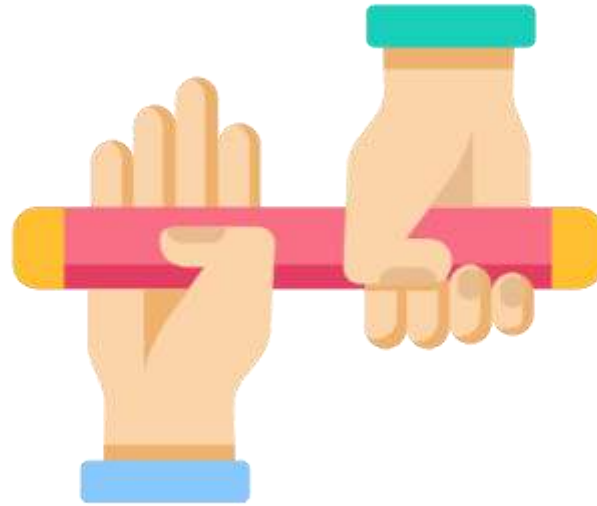

- The committee are easily identifiable by their special badges
- The charity could not function without its committee who are responsible for the operational delivery of our programmes
- We need new committee members willing to get involved in LCNUK activities and attend our committee meetings and conference
- Being a committee members allows you to influence the future of the charity and gain new professional insights and career enhancing prospects
- If you're interested in joining talk to a member of the committee (wearing white lanyards with blue text) or pick up a flier from the LCNUK exhibition stand
