The meteor lands
in the garden

Walking back to myself: building a cancer team

The cancer
returns: living,
truly living, with lung cancer

My cancer community: new friends, shared experiences, laughter

Self-advocacy:
finding our super power

Advocating for our cancer community

Tour de 4: keep on moving!

All the love for Lung Cancer Nurse Specialists!

Worth their weight in gold

Not sure she could do anything more, short of curing my

She's my guardian angel

It's such a comfort to have a 'go-to' person cancer She gives hugs and hankies and is the most wonderful human being Always there and accessible

People need to reach out if they are struggling as help is there

Without her, I would be lost in the system

More love!

Her compassion is so tangible it sometimes makes me want to cry

They are all lovely

Highly qualified, knowledgeable, friendly and approachable

They treat me like a human being

I couldn't navigate it all without them

She knows me best of all the team and I have trust in her. All patients should have one in their lives

Always answers swiftly and sorts things out

They are superstars
