

Lung Cancer Nursing UK (LCNUK) Equality and Diversity Policy

This policy applies to all trustees, staff, volunteers, and committee members.

LCNUK recognises, respects and values diversity in its trustees, employees, volunteers, and members.

LCNUK should encourage diversity and seek to implement a policy of equal opportunities in all areas of its work and responsibilities.

The trustees, and committee members of LCNUK are also committed to ensure that it does not discriminate against people with disabilities.

This policy will be delivered through action planning, effective monitoring, and a willingness to tackle problems where they arise.

Diversity

LCNUK will treat all people with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all. It will promote equality of opportunity and diversity. It will eliminate all forms of discrimination on grounds of the nine protected characteristics:

1. Age
2. Disability
3. Gender Assignment
4. Marriage and civil partnership
5. Race (including, colour, nationality, and ethnic or national origin)
6. Pregnancy and Maternity
7. Religion or belief
8. Gender
9. Sexual orientation

LCNUK should encourage all people it works with to contribute to an environment in which people feel comfortable expressing how they feel and what they need, knowing that they will be treated with respect and that their contribution will be valued.

Equal opportunities

The trustees, and committee members of LCNUK are committed to ensure that it does not discriminate against people who identify under the nine protected characteristics. No director, trustee, member, or volunteer should receive less favourable treatment because of a protected characteristic that they might have. Nor will such a person be disadvantaged by conditions or requirements, which cannot be shown to be justifiable.

Aims and Objectives:

- Encourage, promote and celebrate diversity in all of LCNUK 's activities and services and to recognise and value the differences and individual contribution that all people make to LCNUK.
- Ensure trustees, members, and volunteers are representative of the community served and that the appointment policies for committee members are fair and robust.
- To ensure compliance with legislation on discrimination and equality.
- To create environments free from harassment and discrimination.

- To make a willingness to accept and implement this policy to be a necessary qualification for any trustee position in LCNUK.
- To confront and challenge discrimination where and whenever it arises.
- To ensure, so far as is practicable, that all the services of LCNUK are accessible to all people.
- Not unlawfully discriminate because of the Equality Act 2010 protected characteristics of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race (including colour, nationality, and ethnic or national origin), religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation.

Responsibility for Implementation

The overall responsibility for ensuring adherence to, and implementation, of this policy lies with the trustees of LCNUK.

Method of Implementation

LCNUK intends to implement this policy by:

- Ensuring that trustees, committee members, volunteers, contracted staff, and members, reflect the wider community.
- Ensuring that trustees, trustees of LCNUK, committee members, volunteers, contracted staff, and members are made aware, understand, agree with, and are willing to implement, this policy. All trustees, trustees and committee members will be given a copy of this policy as part of their induction.
- Monitoring the services, publicity and events provided by LCNUK, to ensure that they are accessible to all sections of the population and do not discriminate, and taking active steps to ensure that participation is representative.

All trustees, committee members and those working in positions of authority within the organisation are encouraged to undertake free online learning available from these outlets to challenge thinking and raise awareness of diversity and equality issues:

Monitoring and Reviewing

LCNUK will regularly review the implementation of its Equality and Diversity Policy. Monitoring and acting on information gathered, are essential to measure effectiveness and plan progress. The responsibility for implementing and developing the Policy rests with the trustees of LCNUK.

The trustees will review and approve policies, procedures and practices that impact on equal opportunities and diversity practice. Where there is evidence of ineffectiveness, immediate remedial action will be taken to ensure implementation.

The board of trustees should review this Equality and Diversity Policy at 3-year intervals or as appropriate.
